Appeal Process

Detroit Business Certification Program (DBCP)
Detroit-Based Business (DBB),
Detroit Headquartered Business (DHB), Detroit Small Business (DSB),
Minority-Owned Business Enterprise (MBE) and/or Woman-Owned Business Enterprise (WBE)

Within fourteen (14) calendar days of the date of the applicant's receipt of a "Denial of DBB, DHB, DSB, MBE and/or WBE Re-Certification or new Certification". The applicant may file with the HRD a written request for an informal discussion, the purpose of which is to permit the business to discuss its concerns about the denial.

After the informal discussion, the HRD shall issue a "Confirmation Notice" that outlines these subject matters:

- i. The issues discussed at and the outcome of the informal discussion and
- ii. The applicant business' appellate rights.
- iii. The HRD shall mail to the applicant business a copy of the "Confirmation Notice" by Certified Mail, Return Receipt Requested.

Only after it has exhausted the procedures set forth above, may an applicant business appeal from a "Denial of DBCP Certification." A typewritten or printed "Claim of Appeal" shall be filed with the Human Rights Director within fourteen (14) calendar days of the date of receipt of a "Confirmation Notice." A "Claim of Appeal" shall satisfy all of the following requirements:

- i. Include a detailed narrative of all of the bases for reversal of the HRD's decision to deny DBCP certification. Any basis omitted from the "Claim of Appeal" is waived;
- ii. Include documentation supporting the applicant business' claim that it satisfies the requirements for DBCP certification;
- iii. Include a copy of the "Confirmation Notice" as described
- iv. Include a statement from the applicant business as to whether it desires an opportunity to discuss its appeal with the Human Rights Director; and
- v. Exclude any reliance on or reference to changes in the applicant business' ownership, operation and/or management occurring after the date of the "Denial of DBCP Certification."

A "Claim of Appeal" that does not substantially conform to the requirements of this process as outlined may be dismissed by the Human Rights Director without a decision on the merits of the appeal.
